KEY SELLING POINTS

- In this cute and silly board book, a hungry and insatiable monster eats everything, including the child reading the book!
- Author/illustrator Elise Gravel won the 2012 Governor General's Literary Award for Children's Literature (French-language illustration) and is well-known for her quirky sense of humor and illustrative style.
- Toddlers will love hollering along with the repeated text of "I'm still hungry. What can I eat?" until they squeal with delight when the monster finally notices them.

PRaise FOR ELISE GRAVEL

★ “Simple but versatile, wacky yet charming, the board-book world is lucky Gravel came to play.”

– Quill & Quire, starred review for Potato on a Bike

★ “A read-aloud delight for tots and caregivers alike...Lighthearted and wholly engaging nonsense of the first order.”

– Kirkus Reviews, starred review for A Potato on a Bike

“Gravel captures humor and heart in a simple dialogue between the goofy aquamarine monster and apathetic child. The contrasting pairing provides a classic setup, and a heartwarming resolution brings satisfaction to the hilarious exchange.”

– Booklist for I Am Scary

“Will make for a fun read-aloud...Simple, true-to-life, and fun.”

– Kirkus Reviews for I'm the Boss!
