The sun is rising in the sky when Little Fox comes out of his den.
He is still very sleepy, but Mama has been awake for hours.
Can you see her between the trees?

Little Fox hears a loud noise.
Knock! Knock! Knock!
The woodpecker is hammering
the tree with his pointy beak.
What is he looking for?

The deer are standing in the field at the edge of the woods.
As soon as the mother deer sees Little Fox,
she lifts her head to watch him.
Little Deer stays close to her mother.

As the stars come out, Little Fox races through the forest, looking for friends.
Under the bluebells he meets some prickly porcupines.
“Hello, porcupine family!”

When Little Fox finds a friend, they play a game of hide-and-seek.
They romp between the trees in the moonlight. The owl watches them from high above.

Soon the sun will come up.
The day's first birds are already awake and chirping.
Little Fox is starting to feel very sleepy.

He heads back to his den to snuggle with his mama.

Good night, Little Fox.
